

2005-2006 Season
'It takes two'

Orchestra and choruses directed by Mark Sumner, Director of UC Choral Ensembles
Additional preparation by William García Ganz, Associate Director of UC Choral Ensembles

UC Men's Chorale

Christa Pfeiffer, *soprano

UC Women's Chorale

Mark Bruce, *organist

Poulenc

Gloria

Duruflé

Requiem

A pairing of two sacred works by French composers, contemporaries of one another, both accompanied by orchestra.
Given the origin of the music and the traditional roots from which they are inspired, the pieces could not be more different in their approach to singing and in their dramatic effect on the audience.
Oh, and these two works happen to be among the greatest choral masterpieces.

Sunday November 20, 2005 • 7 pm
Hertz Hall, UC Berkeley campus
near Bancroft Way and College Avenue

Tickets: $15 general, $10 seniors/students/disabled, $6 UC Berkeley students for information call 510 642-3880
enjoy an informative visit to our website at www.ucac.net